The Riviera Maya, a gorgeous stretch of white-sand beaches and turquoise Caribbean water offering exhilarating eco-adventures and Mayan ruins, extends from just south of Cancun to the eco-chic beach town of Tulum.

- What Makes It Unique: Calm seas, beautiful beaches and abundant cultural activities.
- Where to Stay: Chablé Maroma, Rosewood Mayakoba, Hotel Esencia, Belmond Maroma Resort & Spa
- Top Activities: Scuba diving, snorkeling, and other water sports, plus visiting Mayan ruins, cenotes and aquatic theme parks.
- Keep in Mind: With few towns to explore, visitors either stay put at their hotel or engage in excursions.
- Getting There: Fly into Cancun Airport, forty-five minutes from town.
