

DAY OF THE DEAD

BETWEEN MEMORY AND PRESENCE
AT CHABLÉ MAROMA

NOVEMBER 1 & 2, 2026

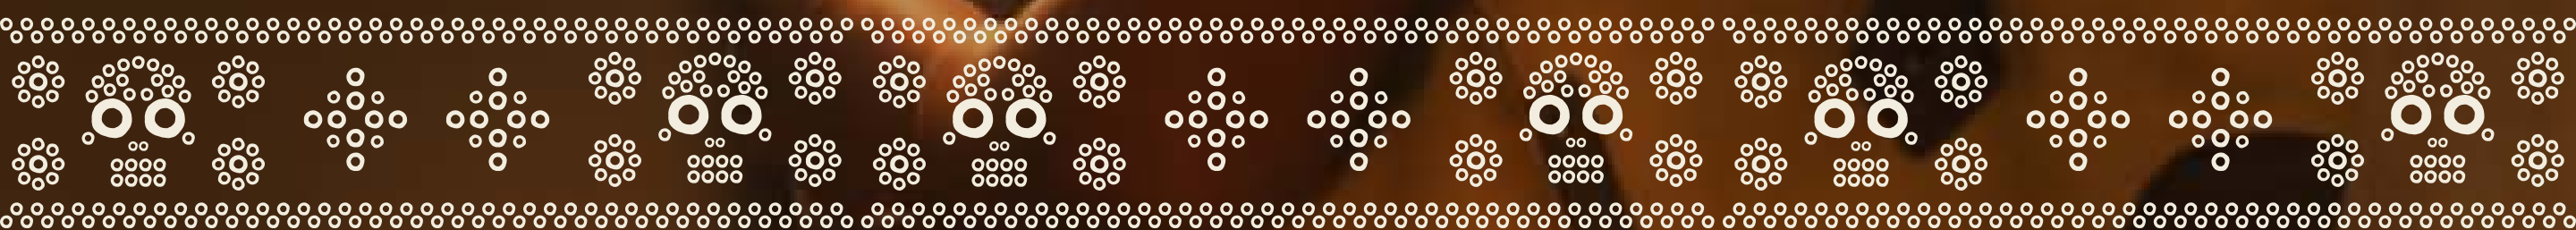

AGENDA

Between candlelight and the whisper of the sea, Día de Muertos reveals one of Mexico's most profound and beautiful traditions. It is a time to honor our roots and celebrate those who remain part of our story. Flowers, flavors, music, and rituals come together to preserve a legacy that continues to shape our collective identity.

At Chablé Maroma, this celebration finds an exceptional setting where, year after year, we gather to pay tribute to those bonds that transcend time.

DECORATE YOUR SUGAR SKULL COOKIE

This activity celebrates the joy and meaning of an ancient custom. By reimagining the iconic face of Día de Muertos with vibrant colors and symbolic details, the afternoon becomes a moment to share and celebrate with family.

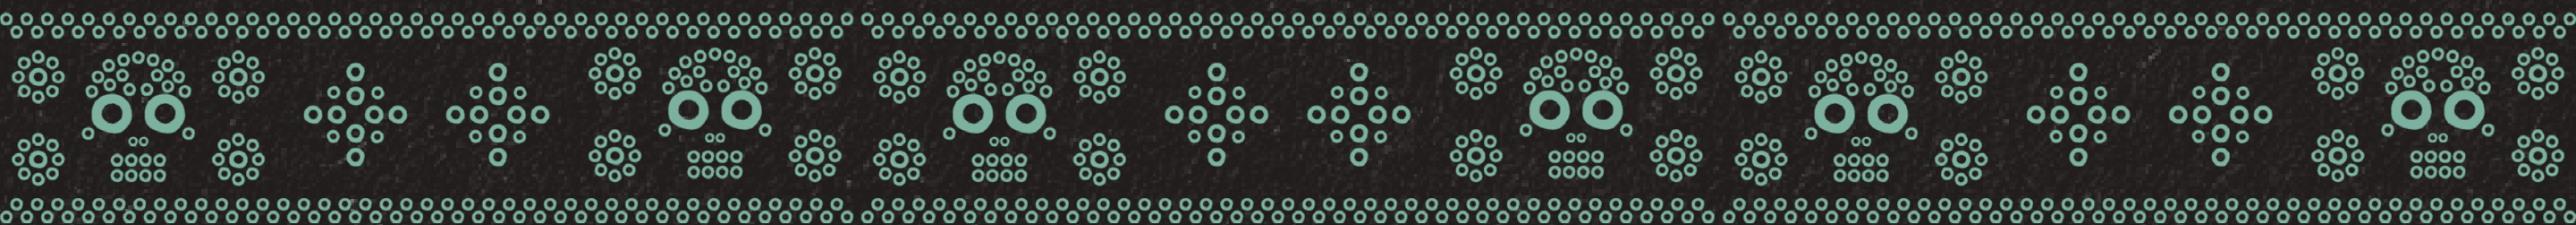

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1
3:00 P.M.

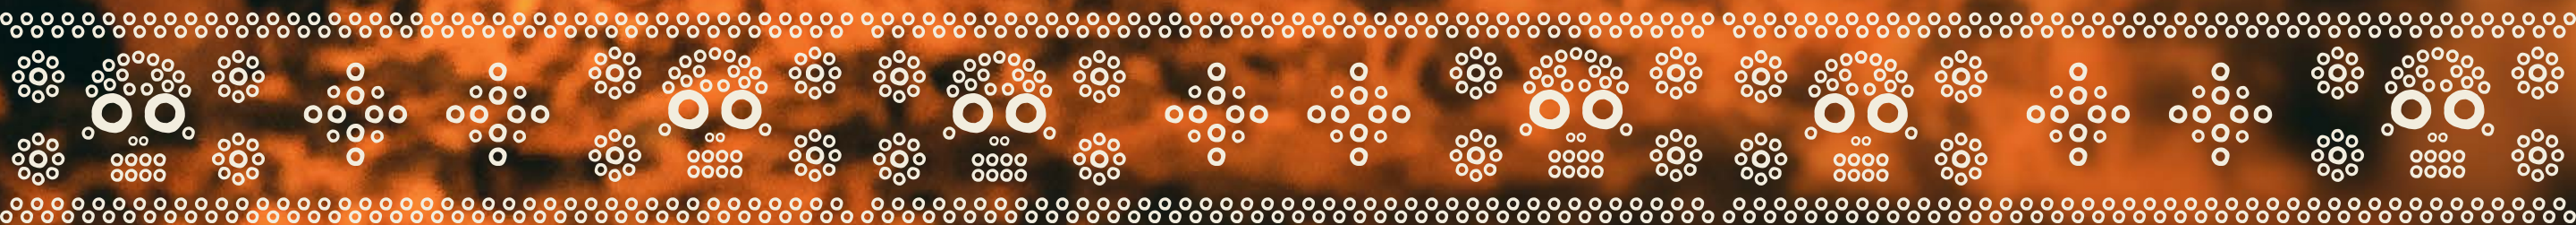

Complimentary

DÍA DE MUERTOS TEMAZCAL

The energy of fire and sacred plants come together in a ceremony inspired by one of Mexico's oldest traditions. This encounter honors the cycle of life and the memory of those who came before us, creating a space of deep connection with our heritage.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1
4:00 P.M.

BURIAL OF THE PIB

As part of the Maya tradition of Hanal Pixán, we will accompany the preparation and burial of the muchipollo, a ceremonial dish created to welcome the souls returning during these days. Beneath the earth and slow fire begins a culinary ritual passed down through generations.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1

6:30 P.M.

Complimentary

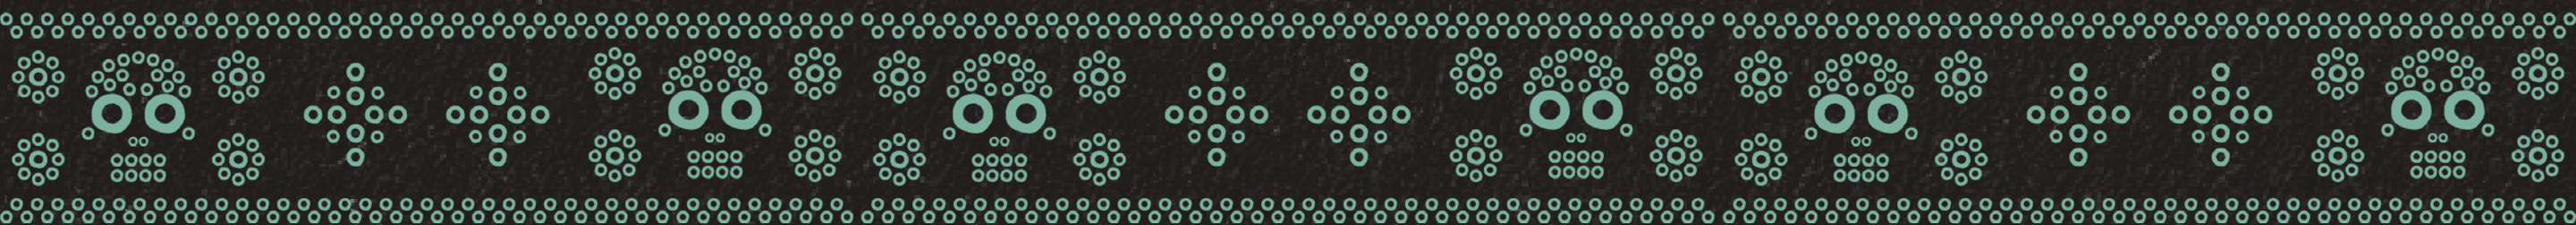

LEGENDS OF HANAL PIXÁN

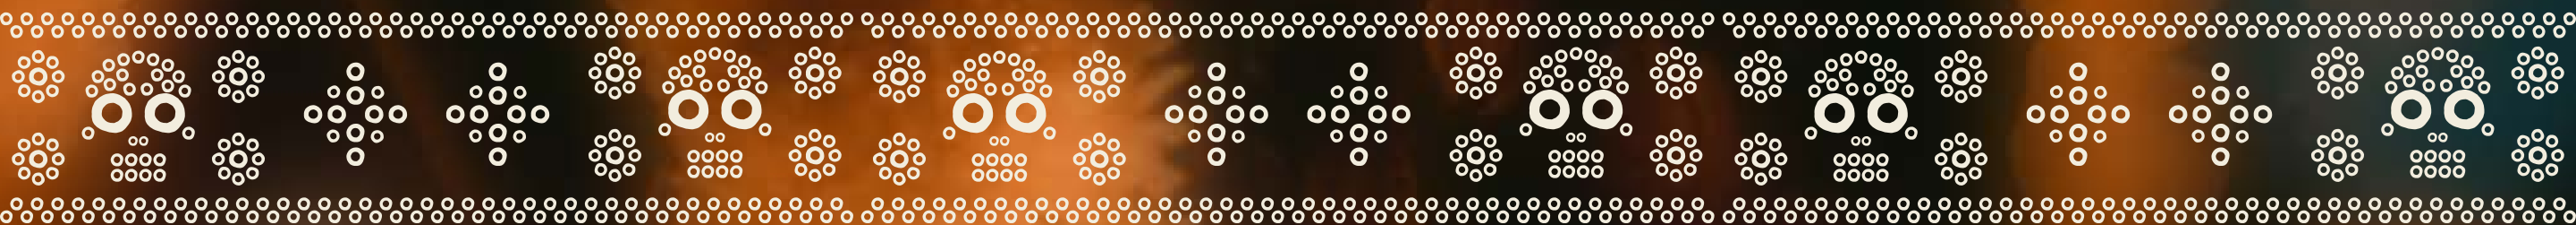

As night falls, stories come alive. In an intimate setting, we will share tales and beliefs passed down through generations, revealing the profound connection between our world and that of the souls in the Maya worldview.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1

7:00 P.M.

Complimentary

SPECIAL DÍA DE MUERTOS DINNER

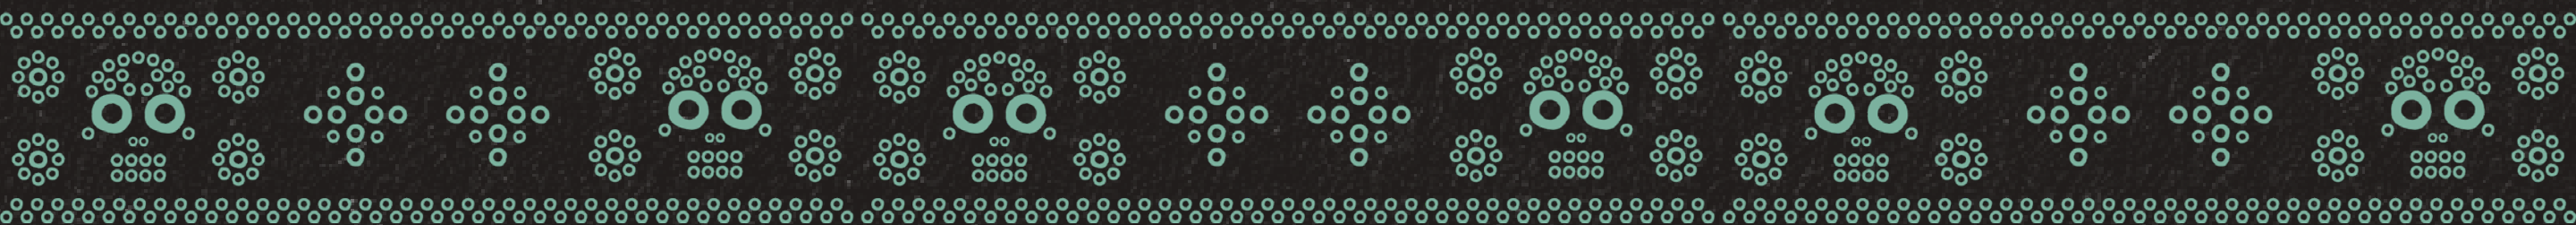

During these days, the table becomes a place of encounter where flavors awaken emotions and shared memories. Guided by Chef Carlos Navarrete and Sommelier Michael González, guests will enjoy a four-course menu inspired by Mexico's culinary richness and the traditions that bring this celebration to life.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1
FROM 6:00 P.M. — BU'UL

UNVEILING OF THE PIB

After hours underground, the moment arrives to reveal the result of this ancestral culinary ritual. The mucbipollo emerges wrapped in aromas of earth, fire, and time, reminding us of food's role as offering and expression of love within Hanal Pixán.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2
7:00 P.M.
Complimentary

DECORATE YOUR SUGAR SKULL

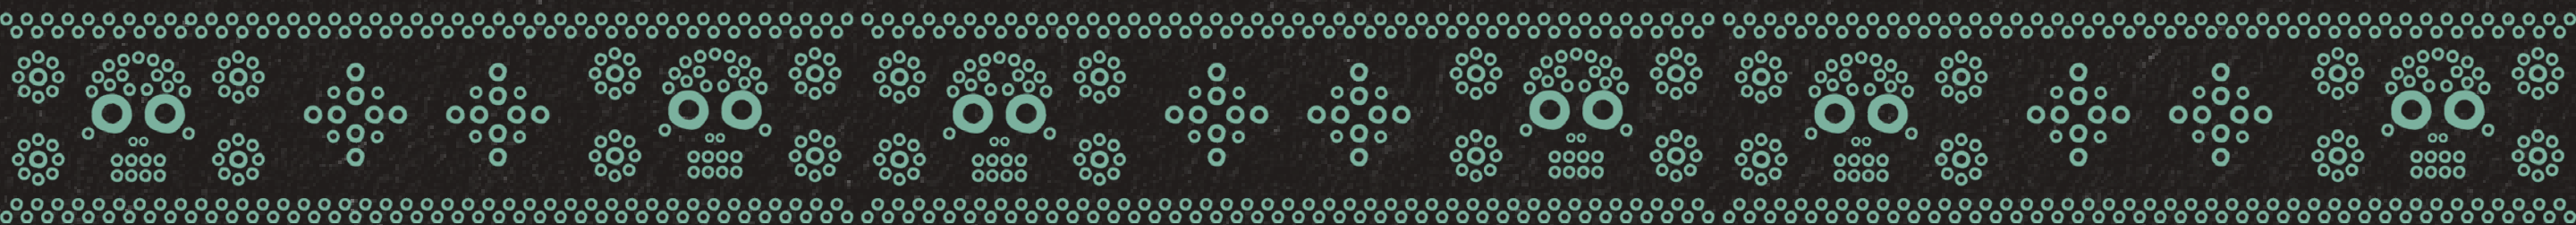

Art and imagination meet in this sweet tradition. Through different decorative elements, each participant will bring their own creation to life while discovering the symbols that accompany this special date.

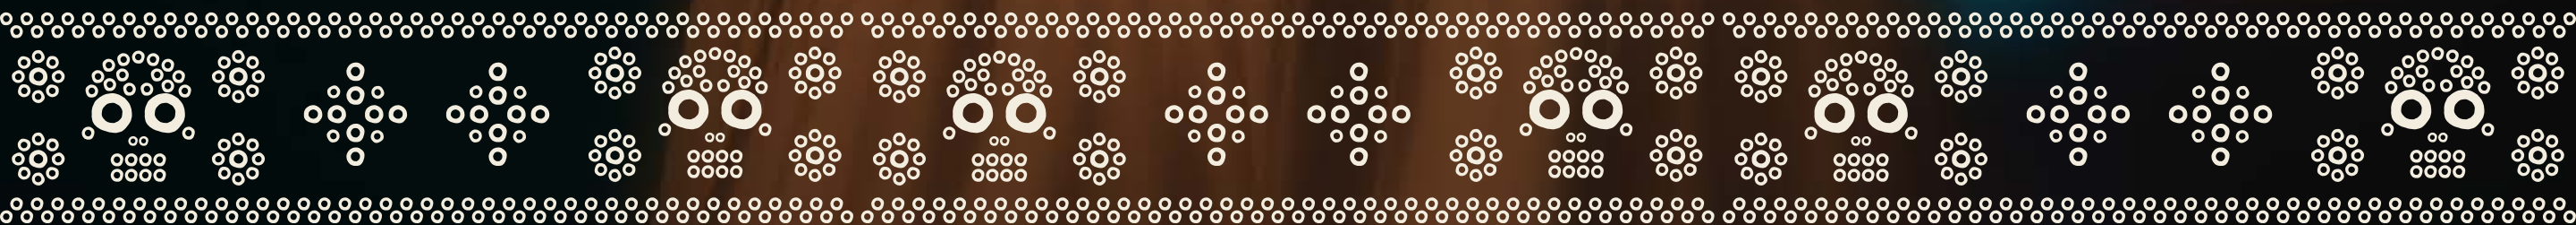

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2
3:00 P.M.
Complimentary

ALTARS & HANAL PIXÁN PROCESSION

Discover the elements that shape Maya offerings dedicated to those who are no longer with us. The experience continues with a ceremonial procession that honors the soul's journey and celebrates the eternal bond between memory, family, and community..

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2
5:00 P.M.
Complimentary

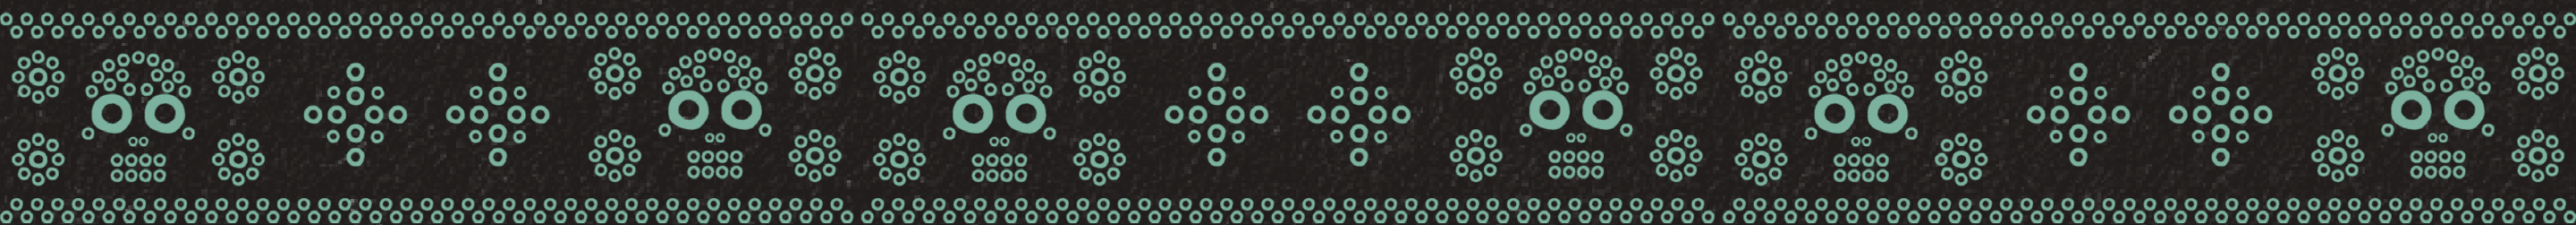

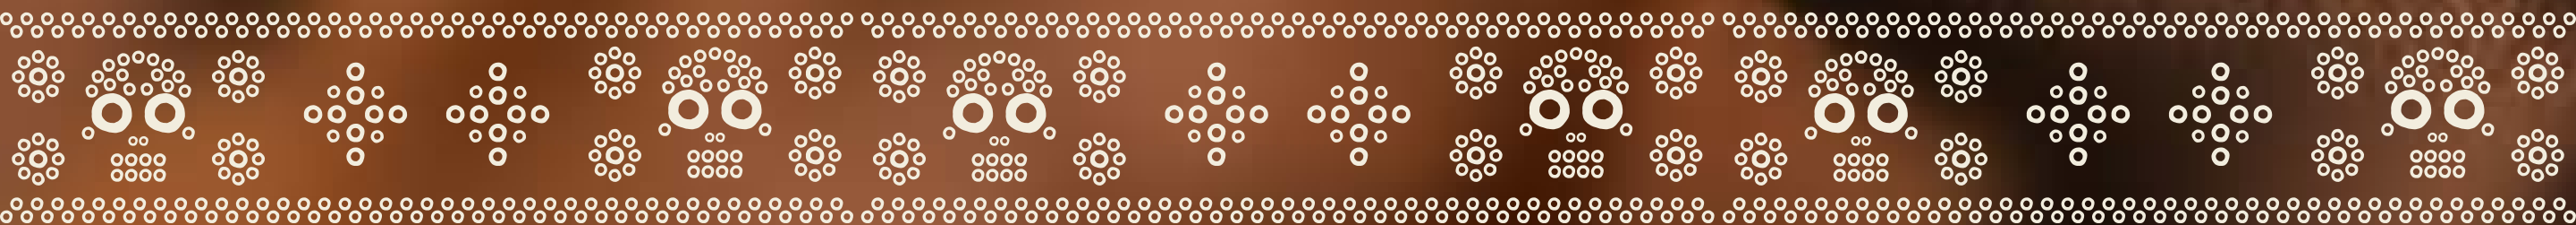

HANAL PIXÁN DINNER

The celebration culminates by the sea with grilled preparations, regional ingredients, and recipes rooted in the peninsula's culture. A night to savor tradition in community.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2

7:00 P.M. — POOL AREA

DESIGN YOUR STAY
WITH OUR CONCIERGE

Reservations:
reservations@chablemaroma.com

